catarrh in the Head which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, pain in the head, especially when arising from the head but in the throat, sometimes protracted, watery, and acrid, often with violent fits, and sometimes it is so violent that the eyes are weak and watery; it creeps in ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of yellowish mucus, which is very viscid; the voice is hoarse; the voice is changed and has a "nasal twang"; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with unsteadiness, and a sense of heat even in the cold weather. Only a few of the above named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases a day, without including half of the cases, are cured by Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and in the cases where it is a common, more deep and dangerous or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh. "Cure in the Head."
"Coryza," "Catarrhal Headache."

It cures every where; 50 cents.

"Entold Acony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. H. Hayes, the famous neurologist of Albany, N. Y., writes: "I was long suffered from acony from catarrh in my nasal catarrh.
My family physician gave me up as hopeless, and said I must die. My case was one of the most severe ever seen, took my voice away, and became so hoarse I could not speak above a whisper. In the morning as I awoke and cleared my throat would find my voice gone, and when I spoke it was a whisper. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, after a few days, and the cure was permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHTON, Esq., 2902 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was long suffered from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last constant months I could not sleep at night, and was continually ill. There was nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a very much better man. It is to be hoped that every one who catches now can be cured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

A complete Treatise on Catarrh, giving valuable hints as to the cure of all forms of Catarrh, will be mailed, post paid, to any address, on receipt of a two-cent postage stamp.
